This document forms an integral part of the Destinara Platform Terms of Service.

In the event of any inconsistency between this English version and the Indonesian version (Kebijakan Privasi), the Indonesian version shall prevail.

ARTICLE 1

INTRODUCTION AND DATA PROTECTION COMMITMENT

- (1) This Privacy Policy ("Privacy Policy") describes how PT Destinara Chakrawal Artha ("Destinara", "we", "us", or "our") collects, uses, stores, protects, and deletes Personal Data provided by Users when accessing or using the Destinara Platform through the website <https://destinara.id>, mobile application, or other digital interfaces.
- (2) This Privacy Policy is prepared and implemented in accordance with the provisions of Law Number 27 of 2022 on Personal Data Protection ("UU PDP") and its implementing regulations, Law Number 11 of 2008 on Electronic Information and Transactions as amended ("UU ITE"), and other applicable laws and regulations in Indonesia. Where applicable, this Policy also reflects internationally recognized data protection principles.
- (3) By accessing or using the Platform, Users represent that they have read, understood, and agreed to all provisions in this Privacy Policy. Such consent is given freely and voluntarily as a condition for the use of the Destinara Platform services.
- (4) This Privacy Policy forms an integral and inseparable part of the Destinara Platform Terms of Service ("ToS"). In the event of any conflict between the provisions of this Privacy Policy and the ToS, the more specific provision shall prevail.
- (5) In the event of any inconsistency between this English version and the Indonesian version (Kebijakan Privasi), the Indonesian version shall prevail as the official and legally binding document.

ARTICLE 2

DEFINITIONS

- (1) In this Privacy Policy, the following terms shall have the meanings set out below:
 1. "Personal Data" means data about an individual who is identified or identifiable, whether alone or in combination with other information, directly or indirectly, through electronic or non-electronic systems, as defined under Article 1(1) of UU PDP.
 2. "General Personal Data" includes full name, gender, nationality, religion, marital status, and/or Personal Data combined to identify an individual.
 3. "Specific Personal Data" includes health data, biometric data, genetic data, criminal records, children's data, and/or personal financial data.
 4. "Personal Data Processing" means any action taken with respect to Personal Data, including collection, processing, analysis, storage, correction, display, disclosure, transmission, dissemination, and deletion.
 5. "Data Subject" means an individual whose Personal Data is processed by Destinara as Personal Data Controller.
 6. "Personal Data Controller" means any person, public body, or international organization that, alone or jointly with others, determines the purposes and means of Personal Data Processing. Under this Privacy Policy, the Personal Data Controller is PT Destinara Chakrawal Artha.
 7. "Personal Data Processor" means any person, public body, or international organization that processes Personal Data on behalf of the Personal Data Controller.

8. "Minor's Data" means Personal Data belonging to Participants who are under 18 (eighteen) years of age, provided by Institutional Buyers to Destinara for the purpose of facilitating study tour services.
9. "User", "Platform", "Buyer", "Destination Manager", "Participant", and other terms shall have the same meanings as defined in the ToS.

 - b. Pages visited, time of visit, and duration of Platform use;
 - c. Device location data if the User grants location access permission; and
 - d. Cookies and similar tracking technology data as governed by Article 12 of this Privacy Policy.

ARTICLE 4

LEGAL BASIS FOR PROCESSING PERSONAL DATA

- (1) Destinara processes Personal Data based on one or more valid legal grounds as stipulated under UU PDP, namely:
- a. Consent: The User has given valid, freely given, specific, informed, and unambiguous consent for the processing of their Personal Data, granted when the User accepts this Privacy Policy and the ToS upon account registration;
 - b. Performance of a contract: Processing is necessary for the performance of the agreement forming the legal basis of the relationship between the User and Destinara, including the processing of orders and payments through the Platform;
 - c. Compliance with a legal obligation: Processing is necessary for Destinara to comply with applicable legal obligations, including tax obligations, regulatory reporting, and other statutory requirements; and
 - d. Legitimate interests: Destinara has legitimate business interests in processing Personal Data for the purposes of platform security, fraud prevention, internal analytics, and service improvement, provided such interests do not override the rights and freedoms of the Data Subject.
- (2) For the processing of Minor's Data (Participant data of those under 18 years of age), Destinara requires Institutional Buyers to obtain and document valid parental or guardian consent prior to submitting such data to Destinara through the Platform.
- (3) Destinara will not process Personal Data for purposes other than those set out in this Privacy Policy without first obtaining new consent from the relevant Data Subject, unless required by law.

ARTICLE 5

PURPOSES OF PERSONAL DATA PROCESSING

- (1) Destinara processes Personal Data for the following purposes:
- a. Registration and management of User accounts on the Platform;
 - b. Processing, confirmation, and management of Service Package bookings;
 - c. Processing payments and refunds through the integrated Payment Gateway;
 - d. Communication with Users regarding bookings, confirmations, service changes, or complaints;
 - e. Verification of the identity and legal standing of institutions and Destination Managers registering on the Platform;

- f. Provision of customer support services and complaint resolution;
 - g. Compliance with legal obligations, including tax compliance and reporting to competent authorities;
 - h. Generation of post-visit activity reports and summaries for Users;
 - i. Internal analytics for service improvement and Platform feature development;
 - j. Sending information, updates, or promotional materials to Users who have consented to receive marketing communications; and
 - k. Prevention of fraud, account misuse, and other unlawful activities on the Platform.
- (2) Participant's Personal Data (including Minor's Data) provided by Institutional Buyers will only be processed for the purpose of delivering the booked service and will not be used for marketing or profiling purposes without explicit consent from the authorized party.
- (3) Destinara will not sell, lease, or trade Users' Personal Data to any party for that party's commercial benefit.

ARTICLE 6

DISCLOSURE OF PERSONAL DATA TO THIRD PARTIES

- (1) Destinara may disclose Users' Personal Data to third parties in the following circumstances:
- a. Relevant Destination Managers: Personal Data of Buyers and Participants necessary for the delivery of the booked Service Package, including booking details, group size, and special requirements;
 - b. Payment Gateway Provider: Data required for payment processing is transmitted to Midtrans as the Payment Gateway provider, which processes such data in accordance with their own privacy policy and security standards;
 - c. Technology and infrastructure service providers: Data is stored and processed by cloud and technology infrastructure providers selected by Destinara, which are bound by confidentiality and data security agreements;
 - d. Professional advisors: Lawyers, accountants, auditors, or other advisors bound by professional confidentiality obligations;
 - e. Competent legal authorities: Government agencies, law enforcement authorities, or courts where required by applicable law or a valid legal order; and
 - f. Business successors: In the event of a merger, acquisition, or transfer of Destinara's assets, provided the recipient is bound by equivalent Personal Data protection obligations.
- (2) Any third party receiving Personal Data from Destinara shall be bound by a data processing agreement ensuring the protection of Personal Data in accordance with the standards set by UU PDP.
- (3) Destinara will not disclose Personal Data to parties other than those specified in this Article without prior written consent from the relevant Data Subject, unless required by law.
- (4) Where Destinara is required to disclose Personal Data to a legal authority, Destinara will endeavor to notify the relevant User to the extent permitted by law.

ARTICLE 7

CROSS-BORDER TRANSFER OF PERSONAL DATA

- (1) In the course of providing Platform services, Destinara may store and process Personal Data using technology infrastructure located outside Indonesia, particularly through international cloud computing service providers.
- (2) Any transfer of Personal Data outside Indonesia shall be carried out in compliance with Article 56 of UU PDP, specifically:
 - a. The destination country provides a level of Personal Data protection equivalent to or higher than that under UU PDP; or
 - b. The transfer is made pursuant to an inter-institutional agreement with the destination country ensuring adequate Personal Data protection; or
 - c. The transfer is made based on the Data Subject's consent, with due regard for the security and protection of their Personal Data.
- (3) Destinara ensures that all technology vendors and partners that store or process Users' Personal Data outside Indonesia are bound by agreements guaranteeing data security and confidentiality.

ARTICLE 8

PERSONAL DATA STORAGE AND RETENTION

- (1) Destinara retains Personal Data for as long as necessary to fulfill the processing purposes set out in Article 5 of this Privacy Policy, or for such period as required by applicable laws and regulations.
- (2) The applicable Personal Data retention periods are as follows:
 - a. Active User account data: retained for the duration of the active account and up to 5 (five) years after account closure or deletion;
 - b. Transaction data and booking history: retained for 10 (ten) years from the date of transaction in accordance with tax obligations and applicable regulations;
 - c. Minor's Data (Participants under 18 years of age): retained only for as long as necessary for the relevant activity and for no more than 2 (two) years after the activity has been completed;
 - d. Communication and complaint data: retained for 3 (three) years from the date of complaint resolution; and
 - e. Technical data (system logs, cookies): retained in accordance with operational technical requirements, generally not exceeding 1 (one) year.
- (3) Upon expiry of the retention period, Destinara will securely delete or anonymize Personal Data so that it can no longer be linked to the relevant Data Subject.
- (4) In the event of a legal dispute, investigation, or legal obligation requiring retention of Personal Data beyond the established retention period, Destinara will retain such data until the final resolution of the relevant case or obligation.

ARTICLE 9

PERSONAL DATA SECURITY

- (1) Destinara implements reasonable and proportionate technical and organizational measures to protect Users' Personal Data from unauthorized access, disclosure, alteration, loss, or unlawful destruction, including:

- a. Data encryption: Sensitive data is encrypted using industry-standard encryption protocols (SSL/TLS) during transmission and at rest;
 - b. Access control: Access to Personal Data is restricted to employees, contractors, and partners who require such access for their work, applying the principle of least privilege;
 - c. Security authentication: Implementation of robust authentication mechanisms on Destinara's internal systems that process Personal Data;
 - d. Audit and monitoring: Regular monitoring of systems and access to detect unusual or suspicious activity; and
 - e. Employee training: All employees handling Personal Data are required to complete data security training and are bound by confidentiality obligations.
- (2) Sensitive payment data (credit/debit card information) is not stored by Destinara. All payment data is processed directly by Midtrans as the Payment Gateway, which operates in accordance with PCI-DSS (Payment Card Industry Data Security Standard) security standards.
- (3) While Destinara endeavors to fully protect Users' Personal Data, no security system is infallible. Users are encouraged to keep their account credentials confidential and to promptly report to Destinara any suspected unauthorized access to their account.
- (4) In the event of a Personal Data breach that significantly impacts Users, Destinara will notify the affected Users and the Personal Data Protection Agency (BPDP) within the timeframe stipulated by UU PDP.

ARTICLE 10

SPECIAL PROTECTION FOR MINOR'S DATA

- (1) Destinara recognizes that study tour services on the Platform may involve Personal Data of Participants who are under 18 (eighteen) years of age. Accordingly, Destinara applies stricter protection standards for Minor's Data in compliance with UU PDP and Law Number 35 of 2014 on Child Protection.
- (2) The following special provisions apply to the processing of Minor's Data:
- a. Destinara does not directly collect Personal Data from underage Participants. Minor's Data is only received from Institutional Buyers acting on behalf of and with the consent of the relevant parent or guardian;
 - b. Institutional Buyers submitting Minor's Data to Destinara represent and warrant that they have obtained valid parental or guardian consent from the relevant Participants' parents or guardians in accordance with applicable law;
 - c. Minor's Data is only processed for the purpose of delivering the booked activity and will not be used for any other purpose, including marketing, profiling, or commercial analytics;
 - d. Access to Minor's Data is strictly limited to those who genuinely need access for the purpose of delivering the relevant activity; and
 - e. Minor's Data will be deleted in accordance with the retention period set out in Article 8(2)(c) of this Privacy Policy.
- (3) If Destinara discovers that Minor's Data has been collected without valid parental or guardian consent, Destinara will promptly delete such data from its systems and notify the relevant parties.

ARTICLE 11

DATA SUBJECT RIGHTS

- (1) As Data Subjects, Users have the following rights over their Personal Data as guaranteed under UU PDP:
- a. Right to information: The right to receive clear information regarding the identity of the Data Controller, the purposes of processing, the categories of Personal Data processed, and Data Subject rights;
 - b. Right of access: The right to access and obtain a copy of Personal Data processed by Destinara;
 - c. Right to rectification: The right to request correction or update of inaccurate or incomplete Personal Data;
 - d. Right to erasure: The right to request the deletion of Personal Data under certain circumstances, including where the data is no longer necessary for the original purpose of processing or where consent is withdrawn;
 - e. Right to withdraw consent: The right to withdraw consent for consent-based processing without affecting the lawfulness of processing carried out prior to withdrawal;
 - f. Right to restriction of processing: The right to request restriction of Personal Data processing under certain conditions;
 - g. Right to data portability: The right to receive Personal Data in a structured, commonly used, and machine-readable format, and to transfer such data to another Data Controller; and
 - h. Right to object: The right to object to certain Personal Data processing, including processing for direct marketing purposes.
- (2) To exercise the rights set out in paragraph (1), Users may submit a request through:
- a. Email: destinaracompany@gmail.com with the subject line "Data Subject Rights Request – [User's Name]"; or
 - b. The request form available on the Account Settings page of the Platform.
- (3) Destinara will respond to and act upon requests under paragraph (2) within no more than 14 (fourteen) Business Days from receipt of a complete request.
- (4) Destinara reserves the right to verify the identity of the requester prior to processing a Data Subject rights request to ensure the security of the relevant Personal Data.
- (5) Where a User's request cannot be fulfilled, Destinara will provide a written explanation of the grounds for refusal together with information on available legal remedies.

ARTICLE 12

COOKIES AND TRACKING TECHNOLOGIES

- (1) The Destinara Platform uses cookies and similar tracking technologies to enhance the user experience, analyze platform traffic, and support certain features. The types of cookies used include:
- a. Essential cookies: Cookies that are strictly necessary for the basic functions of the Platform, including session management and security. These cookies cannot be disabled;

- b. Functional cookies: Cookies that store User preferences to improve the Platform experience, such as language and display settings;
 - c. Analytical cookies: Cookies used to collect anonymized or pseudonymized statistical data on Platform usage to improve services; and
 - d. Marketing cookies: Cookies used to present relevant content to Users based on their interests and activities, where the User has provided consent.
- (2) Users may manage cookie preferences through the settings of their browser. However, disabling certain cookies may affect the functionality and quality of the Platform service.
- (3) Users will receive a notification regarding the use of cookies upon first accessing the Platform and will be asked to provide consent for the use of non-essential cookies.

ARTICLE 13

CHANGES TO THIS PRIVACY POLICY

- (1) Destinara reserves the right to amend, update, or revise this Privacy Policy at any time to reflect changes in data processing practices, applicable regulatory changes, or developments in Platform services.
- (2) In the event of material changes to this Privacy Policy, Destinara will notify registered Users through:
- a. Email notification to the address registered on the User's account;
 - b. A prominent notice displayed on the Platform's main page; and/or
 - c. In-app notification.
- (3) Notification of material changes will be provided at least 14 (fourteen) calendar days before the changes take effect, unless changes are required immediately for reasons of legal compliance or data security.
- (4) By continuing to use the Platform after the effective date of the amended Privacy Policy, Users are deemed to have accepted the updated Privacy Policy. If a User does not accept the changes, the User may discontinue use of the Platform and request account closure from Destinara.
- (5) The latest version of this Privacy Policy is always available at <https://destinara.id/privacy-policy>.
